Report on “International Nursing Day” Celebration

Date: 05/12/2024

Venue: AMDA Institute of Health Science, Butwal

International Nurses Day is celebrated around the world every May 12th, the anniversary of Florence Nightangle’s birth, who was also known as the founder of modern nursing. On 2081, Baisakh 30 AIHS, Butwal has celebrated the 204th International Nursing Day with great dedication with theme “Our Nurses, Our Future; The Economic Power of Care”.

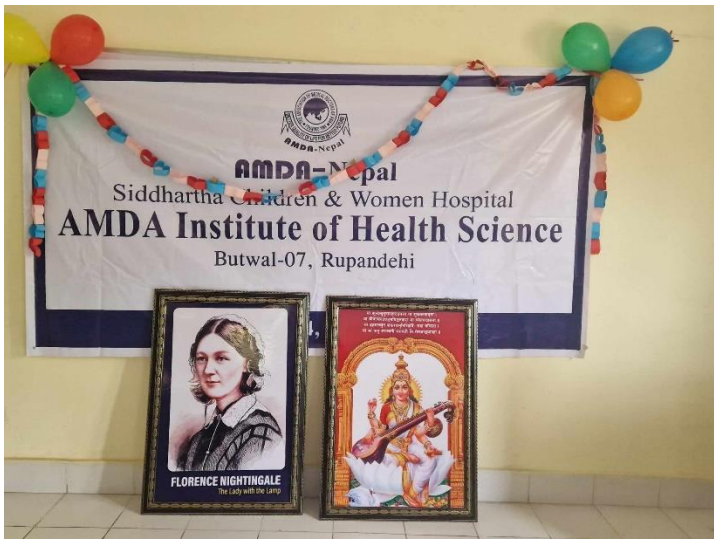

All the students, teachers, staffs, come together to make this day special. The program was conducted and managed by the Nursing students and teachers with help of administration. The devotion of our teachers and the hard work of our students were admirable. All the students, AIHS staff and SCWH Nursing Incharge were gathered together. A Florence Nightangle’s and Goddess Saraswati frame were placed, along with showering garlands and a lit oil lamp. The program was hosted by the PCL Nursing 1st year student Nabina Shrestha and the main guest of the event was Dr. Binod Parajuli Medical Superintendent of SCWH, Administrative Officer Khagendra Chhetri, Account Officer Shiva Prasad Kandel were also present.

First, a short speech and documentary video about the history of nursing is given by Ms. Sarita Rawal, Principal of AIHS. Then our beloved student of PCL nursing, Ashmi Shrestha, delivered her heartfelt words on the 204th theme- “ Our Nurses, Our Future; The Economic Power of Care”, which we continued with the best part of our program, the cake cutting ceremony by our respected guest Dr. Binod Parajuli and Ms. Sarita Rawal, Principal of AIHS. Finally, our program was concluded with the sweet wishes from Dr. Binod Parajuli.

Surprisingly, a new beginning from our HA and Pharmacy student distributed pens and chocolates to all the nursing staff of SCWH and AIHS as a gesture of appreciation. On this day, our AIHS family planted some flowers in the college garden. The atmosphere was filled with positivity and enthusiasm as all the students and staffs came together to celebrate.
