Report on Saraswati Puja

Date: 2080/11/02

Venue: AMDA Institute of Health Science, Damak

Saraswati Puja was celebrated with great dedication on 2080 Falgun 2 in AIHS, Damak. Saraswati Puja is a popular festival of students. During this festival, devotees honor and worship Goddess Saraswati, the deity of knowledge, wisdom, arts, and learning. Saraswati Puja is a celebration of learning, culture, and togetherness.

All the students, teachers, staffs, come together to make this day special. The program was conducted and managed by all the students and teachers with help of administration. The devotion of our teachers and the hard work of our students were admirable. All the students, AIHS staff and AMDA hospital staff were gathered together since early morning. All looked fresh and tidy. A medium size decorated goddess statue was placed. The main guest of the event was Dr. Nabin Dhakal with his co- staffs.

First, puja was started by pujari along with AIHS and AMDA hospital family. Prasad was distributed to everyone after puja. guest was heartily welcome. Both the faculty and students joined hands together, with great enthusiasm to make the event a memorable. The atmosphere was filled with positivity and enthusiasm as all the students and staffs came together to celebrate. The event continued till 5 pm. Next day, the statue of Saraswati mata was immersed by our students in Ratuwa River.

With best Regards
