

AMDA NEPAL
AMDA Institute of Health Science
Damak-02, Jhapa
Reports on Blood Donation Program

Date: 2082-11-15

Time:-8 am onwards

Venue: AMDA Institute of Health Science premises

Occasion: AMDA Nepal Day

Participants: Students and faculties of AIHS, Damak, Red Cross Damak, Jiwan Chakra Samaj Damak, Lions Club Sewika

Introduction

On the occasion of AMDA Day, a blood donation program was successfully organized in collaboration with the Red Cross Damak and Lions Club. The event was held on 15th Falgun 2082 (2082/11/15) from 8:00 AM onwards at the college premises. The primary objective of the program was to promote humanitarian service, encourage voluntary blood donation, and raise awareness about its importance in saving lives.

Objectives

- To raise awareness about the importance of blood donation
- To contribute to saving lives through voluntary blood donation
- To promote social responsibility among students

Guests and Collaborators

The program was honored by the presence of distinguished guests and representatives from collaborating organizations, including:

- Mr. Siddhartha sir , Red Cross Damak
- Mr. Ganesh Gautam, Jiwan Chakra Samaj, Damak
- Ms. Kamala Ghimire, Lions Club Sewika
- Other supporting team members

Their presence added value to the program and strengthened coordination among organizations.

5. Program Proceedings

The program commenced with a warm welcome speech delivered by the Principal Ma'am, Ms. Sajana Vaidya. She welcomed all distinguished guests, representatives, teachers, and students. In her speech, she highlighted that blood donation is a noble act that can save lives and emphasized the institution's commitment to social responsibility and humanitarian service.

She further stated that as an institution providing health education, the responsibility is not limited to the curriculum alone; it is also essential to produce responsible, compassionate, and service-oriented citizens. Such programs strengthen the spirit of service, cooperation, and social responsibility among students.

The program was formally inaugurated by the Chief Guest, Mr. Siddhartha from Red Cross Damak. In his address, he appreciated the efforts of the college and collaborating organizations for organizing such a meaningful program. He emphasized that blood donation is a simple yet powerful act that brings hope to patients in need and encouraged everyone to continue supporting such initiatives.

Following the inauguration, the blood donation process began smoothly under proper medical supervision. More than 100 students actively participated in the blood donation program. In addition, the Principal Ma'am, Ms. Sajana Vaidya, and several faculty members also contributed by donating blood. Their involvement demonstrated strong leadership and inspired students to participate in this noble cause. Necessary health check-ups and safety measures were ensured before donation. Students, teachers, and staff participated actively with great enthusiasm.

The program concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by the Principal Ma'am. Gratitude was expressed to the Chief Guest Siddhartha sir, all distinguished guests, collaborating organizations, teachers, volunteers, and students. Their valuable support and participation played a crucial role in making the program successful.

9. Conclusion

The blood donation program organized on the occasion of AMDA Nepal Day was a remarkable success. It reflected the institution's strong commitment to social responsibility, teamwork, and humanitarian service. The enthusiastic participation of students, faculty, and staff, along with the valuable support of partner organizations, highlighted the college's dedication to community welfare and effective event management.

Photo Gallery

Blood Donation Program

Thank you
AIHS, Damak